An order relieving counsel for Defendants Crime Prevention Security Patrol, LLC, Stephen Tarsitano, and Thomas Tarsitano was issued on May 20, 2015. (ECF No. 53.) The order provided these defendants up to sixty (60) days to obtain new counsel and indicated that Defendants Stephen Tarsitano and Thomas Tarsitano acknowledged their understanding that they may not represent the corporate defendant, Crime Prevention Security Patrol, LLC. (Id.) To date, these defendants have not obtained substitute counsel.

While 28 U.S.C. § 1654 allows individuals to “plead and conduct their own cases personally,” the statute does not extend that right to represent other parties. “Courts [] have interpreted this section to preclude a corporation from appearing through a lay representative.” Eagle Associates v. Bank of Montreal, 926 F.2d, 1305, 1308 (2d Cir. 1991) (collecting cases); see also Ashbaugh v. Corp. of Bolivar, 481 F. App’x 840 (2012). This order constitutes final notice to

Defendant Crime Prevention Security Patrol, LLC, that it cannot proceed without counsel in this action.

TO THE PRO SE DEFENDANTS:

As pro se parties in this case, the attention of Defendants Stephen Tarsitano and Thomas Tarsitano is directed to the following important notice and information:

You are ordered to always keep the Clerk of Court advised in writing (at 901 Richland Street, Columbia, South Carolina 29201) if your address changes for any reason, so as to assure that you receive orders or other matters that specify deadlines for you to meet. If, as a result of your failure to comply with this order, you fail to file something you are required to file within a deadline set by a District Judge or a Magistrate Judge, your case may be negatively impacted. Therefore, if you have a change of address before this case is ended, you must comply with this order by immediately advising the Clerk of Court in writing of such change of address. Your failure to do so will not be excused by the court. Put this order with your own record of this case so that you will not overlook your duty. If an attorney serves you by mail on behalf of a party, you also have a duty to notify that attorney if your address is to be changed for mail purposes.

Pursuant to Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, any documents filed subsequent to the initial pleading must be served on parties. Unless otherwise ordered, service of subsequently filed documents on a party represented by an attorney is made on the attorney. Service on attorneys who have made an appearance in this court is effected by the court's Electronic Case Filing system through a computer generated notice of electronic filing. However, prior to a party's attorney making an appearance in this court, any documents filed subsequent to the initial pleading must be served on that party and a certificate of service must be filed stating who was served, what document was served, and how the document was served.

Any future filings in this case must be sent to the address listed above. All documents requiring the defendants' signature shall be signed with their full legal name written in their own handwriting. Pro se litigants shall not use the "s/typed name" format used in the Electronic Case Filing System. In any future filings with this court, defendants must use letter-sized paper and may only write, or type text, on one side of a sheet of paper. The defendants must place the Civil Action Number (C/A No. 0:14-3167-MGL-PJG) on any document filed in this case.

TO THE CLERK OF COURT:

The Office of the Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to the defendants currently proceeding pro se: Stephen Tarsitano and Thomas Tarsitano. The Office of the Clerk of Court is further directed to mail a copy of this order to the corporate defendant, Crime Prevention Security Patrol, LLC, which may not proceed pro se in this action.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Paige J. Gossett
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
